

Social media is a powerful tool that allows the Greyhound Welfare & Integrity Commission to connect with the communities in an immediate, familiar, and accessible way.

GWIC COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

To ensure these channels are a respectful, reliable, relevant and safe, the Commission has community guidelines on what are acceptable standards of conduct for those who engage.

Comments/content on GWIC social media accounts may be deleted if they are considered by moderators to be:

Abusive, offensive or unlawful: Harassment, bullying or provoking other community members, swearing, derogatory language and expression of views that are racist, sexist, homophobic, predatory or sexually explicit are not acceptable.

Potentially defamatory or that breach privacy laws.

Political in nature: While we welcome the discussion of policies and initiatives, it is not the place to discuss political parties and personalities.

Misleading information or misinformation: Information that is false, unfounded or misleading, whether intentional or not, will be removed.

GWIC COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

An infringement of intellectual property rights: Respect and acknowledge original creators when sharing content.

Promotional: We do not accept advertisements, requests to endorse commercial products or services or soliciting donations.

Spam or harmful: Copied and pasted, duplicated or off-topic posts will be removed. We do not tolerate posts containing links to harmful or suspicious websites or applications.

Breaching privacy by containing personal information, such as email addresses or telephone numbers.

FAILURE TO FOLLOW GUIDELINES

If you fail to follow these guidelines, we may block your account on one or more of GWIC's platforms.
